

Why Did Jesus Come Scriptures

For all the promises of God in Him are Yes, and in Him Amen, to the glory of God through us.
(2 Corinthians 1:20)

“For God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son, that whoever believes in Him should not perish but have everlasting life. For God did not send His Son into the world to condemn the world, but that the world through Him might be saved.” (John 3:16-17)

“The Spirit of the Lord is upon Me, because He has anointed Me to preach the gospel to the poor; He has sent Me to heal the broken-hearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives and recovery of sight to the blind, to set at liberty those who are oppressed; to proclaim the acceptable year of the Lord.” (Luke 4: 18-19)

Now I say that Jesus Christ has become a servant to the circumcision for the truth of God, to confirm the promises made to the fathers, and that the Gentiles might glorify God for His mercy. (Romans 15:8-9)

For this purpose the Son of God was manifested, that He might destroy the works of the devil.
(1 John 3:8)

“The thief does not come except to steal, and to kill, and to destroy. I have come that they may have life, and that they may have it more abundantly.” (John 10:10)

“For this cause I was born, and for this cause I have come into the world, that I should bear witness to the truth. Everyone who is of the truth hears My voice.” (John 18:7)

“Now My soul is troubled, and what shall I say? ‘Father, save Me from this hour?’ But for this purpose I came to this hour.” (John 12:27)

“For the Son of Man has come to seek and to save that which was lost.” (Luke 19:10)

And we have seen and testify that the Father has sent the Son as Savior of the world. (1 John 4:14)

In this is love, not that we loved God, but that He loved us and sent His Son to be the propitiation for our sins. (1 John 4:10)

Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners. (1 Timothy 1:15)

now, once at the end of the ages, He has appeared to put away sin by the sacrifice of Himself.
(Hebrews 9:26)

And you know that He was manifested to take away our sins, and in Him there is no sin. (1 John 3:5)

“Those who are well have no need of a physician, but those who are sick. I did not come to call the righteous, but sinners, to repentance.” (Mark 2:17)

To you first, God, having raised up His Servant Jesus, sent Him to bless you, in turning away every one of you from your iniquities. (Acts 3:26)

Why Did Jesus Come Scriptures

"Do not think that I came to destroy the Law or the Prophets. I did not come to destroy but to fulfil."
(Matthew 5:17)

For what the law could not do in that it was weak through the flesh, God did by sending His own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh, on account of sin: He condemned sin in the flesh, that the righteous requirement of the law might be fulfilled in us who do not walk according to the flesh but according to the Spirit. (Romans 8:3-4)

But when the fullness of the time had come, God sent forth His Son, born of a woman, born under the law, to redeem those who were under the law, that we might receive the adoption as sons.
(Galatians 4:4-5)

"For even the Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve, and to give His life a ransom for many."
(Mark 10:45)

Therefore, in all things He had to be made like His brethren, that He might be a merciful and faithful High Priest in things pertaining to God, to make propitiation for the sins of the people. For in that He Himself has suffered, being tempted, He is able to aid those who are tempted. (Hebrews 2:17-18)

then He said, "Behold, I have come to do Your will, O God". (Hebrews 10:9)

"For I came down from heaven, not to do mine own will, but the will of him that sent me." (John 6:38)

"I must preach the kingdom of God to the other cities also, because for this purpose I have been sent."
(Luke 4:43)

"I have come as a light into the world, that whoever believes in Me should not abide in darkness." (John 12:46)

And Jesus said, 'For judgment I came into this world, so that those who do not see may see, and that those who see may become blind'. (John 9:39)

"I came to send fire on the earth, and how I wish it were already kindled! But I have a baptism to be baptized with, and how distressed I am till it is accomplished! Do you suppose that I came to give peace on earth? I tell you, not at all, but rather division. For from now on five in one house will be divided: three against two, and two against three. Father will be divided against son and son against father, mother against daughter and daughter against mother, mother-in-law against her daughter-in-law and daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law." (Luke 12: 49-53)
